

DUNNVILLE FAIR
GENERAL RULES & REGULATIONS

1. Membership – Annual membership fee is $7 for Adults (19 and older), $3 for Juniors (18 & under), if Junior Members wish to exhibit in Senior classes they will pay an additional $4. Members are entitled to one day free admission to the Fair (Card to be turned in upon entrance to the Fair)
2. Admission- Daily admission to the Fair as follows: $7 per adult (18+), $5 for Youth (13-17), $3 for Children (4-12). Children 3 and under are free when accompanied by an adult.
3. Exhibitors- All exhibitors must be members of the Society, except exhibitors in the School Fair Section. Memberships must be purchased by exhibitors prior to the commencement of judging. Competition for prizes is open to all, irrespective of residence, unless otherwise specified.
4. All exhibitors acknowledge and agree to abide by these rules and regulations, unless otherwise stated.
5. Unless otherwise stated: every animal, fowl, article, product and chattel exhibited must be the actual bonafide property and absolutely belong to the persons entering and exhibiting the same, and in the case of every article, product and chattel exhibited, the said article, product or chattel must be the actual production, growth or manufacture, and, as the case may be, of the person or persons owning and exhibiting the same.
6. Use the online exhibitor link when at all possible. All entry forms for exhibitors must reach the Office no later than Friday July 28, 2023 (for mailing of tickets) or Friday August 4, 2023 for pick up on Tuesday August 8, 2023 unless otherwise specified in certain classes. Any forms left at office after this date, exhibitors will be picking up their tickets when dropping off their entries. Late entries may be accepted at discretion of the committee chair. On admittance to the Fairgrounds, exhibitor must give their name and address and the kind of stock exhibited to the Secretary, who will issue a ticket identifying the appropriate Class and Section and/or a number to be put on each animal or article for exhibition.
7. No exhibitor is allowed to make more than 2 entries in the same section of any class except where specified (woodcraft, art or livestock- check individual sections for more information).
8. Entry fees- from each exhibitor who has been awarded cash prizes of $5 or more, 15% of prize money will be retained by the Fair Board in lieu of entry fees.
9. All articles for exhibition in the Hall must be placed in the Exhibition Hall for judging by Wednesday, August 10th between 6 and 8 pm. Exhibit displays will be arranged by the Fair Committee only.
10. Exhibit Hall will be locked at 430pm on Sunday, August 13, 2023, and the door will be opened at 5pm for removal of exhibits as soon as possible. No articles or exhibits may be removed from the Exhibition Hall before that time.
11. Livestock exhibitors must be on the grounds by 10am the day of their class unless otherwise specified.
12. No person or persons will be allowed in the show room during the inspections of the Judges, except officers appointed by the Board of Directors to attend them.
13. Decisions of the Judges shall be final. No appeals will be considered.
14. No person or persons will be allowed to interfere with Judges while engaged in making their awards or afterwards, either by conversation or under any pretence, under forfeiture of all prizes to which they might otherwise be entitled and will also be promptly excluded from the competition.
15. Protest may be made against regularity of breach of rules by any exhibitor or interested party. Protest must be filed on the day of judging. Any person making such a protest will be required to deposit with the Treasurer the sum of $25, and if the protest is not sustained, the said deposit will be retained by the Society. The President and Vice Presidents shall be a committee to decide on the protest.
16. Worthy exhibits- in sections of classes where there are not two or more exhibits, the Judges shall be empowered to award a second, third or no prize where they consider the exhibit does not merit a first prize. No additions can be made after registration closes.
17. While the Directors of the Society will take every possible precaution under the circumstances to secure the safety of life and property at the exhibition, the Society declares that it is strictly understood that exhibitors and others attend the exhibition at their own risk. Should any article be accidentally injured, burned, lost or stolen, the Directors will give all assistance in their power for recovery, but they will not recognize any claim for payment of the value or portion thereof, & the Society will not be responsible for anyone being injured in any way on the grounds.
18. The Society will use due diligence to ensure the safety of livestock and articles entered for exhibition or display after their arrival on the grounds, but under no circumstances will the Society be responsible for loss, injury, or damage by fire, lightening, wind or by any other agency to such livestock or articles on exhibition or display, and the Fair and Management thereof shall be indemnified by the exhibitors against all legal or other proceedings related thereto.

19. All livestock and poultry shall be free of disease and accompanied by a certificate of health or vaccination, if applicable and subject to Veterinarian's inspection, who has the power to remove the exhibit.
20. All exhibitors bringing livestock onto the Fair Grounds must provide to the Secretary, upon request, proof of liability insurance in the amount of 2 (two) million dollars. All livestock shall be properly secured by the owner/exhibitors.
21. No grade animal will be allowed to compete in a pure-bred class. Certificates of registration or pedigrees of cattle, horses, sheep and goats must be produced and checked prior to the judging if requested by the officials.
22. Commercial Exhibits- Parties having articles for sale will be allowed on the grounds after paying a concession fee as set by the Concessions Committee and approved by the Board. Gate passes for commercial exhibitors will be issued by the Concessions Committee and will be required for admission to the Fair Grounds.
23. All exhibitors & concessionaires must obtain from the Society & sign a "Hold Harmless" agreement, absolving the Dunnville Agricultural Society of any liability arising from any injuries or accidents that might occur during the Fair.
24. Notice is hereby given that the Officers of the Society may by their rules and regulations prohibit and prevent theatrical, circus and mountebank performances, exhibitors or show, and may prohibit the sale of cheap jewellery or other inappropriate or offensive articles and no games of chance will be permitted on the grounds or within 300 yards thereof; the Society may also regulate or prevent the huckstering or trafficking in fruits, goods, wares, or merchandise on the exhibition grounds, or within 300 yards thereof; and any person who, after due notice of such rules and regulations, violates the same may be removed by the Officers, Police or Constables of the Society, and that clauses of the "Agricultural Act 1971" relating thereto, shall enforce.
25. The Dunnville Agricultural Society reserves all rights to its grounds and may restrict or prohibit admittance to the grounds to any person or group of persons without giving reason or such action and further, the Society may refuse the privilege of exhibiting to any individual without disclosing the reasons for such refusal and further, all members, exhibitors and others must place animals, cars, trucks, and exhibits as instructed by the Officials or remove same from the grounds
26. Prizes will be paid by the Treasurer no later than October 31, 2023, please cash immediately upon receipt.
27. In the case of insufficient funds, due to weather or other conditions, the Society reserves the right to pay only a percentage of the prizes awarded for exhibits.
28. Each exhibitor winning $10 or more in cash prizes is required to leave $7 with the Society for Membership for 2023 (and $3 for Junior). The Office will deduct this fee from the winnings.
29. In case an error occurs in the printing of the prize list, Directors have the power to rectify the same.
